

Dream #5—Houses in Flames (Spiritual Fire Alarm)

This dream came end of 2012 through a young lady from Brazil. She is a believer and has a large family plus extended family. Most of them are, as yet, unsaved. This dream was sent for Latin America and for every person on the globe in these urgent times.

In this dream the Lord is addressing two main themes: the urgency of the hour, and the fact that we must do our part in helping to rescue family, loved ones and friends and those who are close to us in the workplace or wherever we get a chance to minister to them. In the dream, we see a last-minute rescue of people from burning houses, which is a clear warning of how late the hour is (spiritually speaking).

"I was sleeping in my bed in an apartment that belonged to my family, one of my brothers was with me. It was in a house that had several floors. The entire front of the bedroom was glass, so I could see the sky from my bed. I was woken up by my mp3-player, where all my audio teachings are stored. While I was still lying on my bed, I looked at the sky and watched as the stars were forming two different patterns. Then I saw that below it was extremely bright. When I looked down, I realised that all houses were in flames. I shouted to my brother, "Pack only what is necessary and let's get out of here!" My brother replied, "I do not know what to pack in such a situation." I said, "Put all the wallets and the ID documents in a bag." I ran to get all the wallets and put them in a bag and we dashed to the exit. On a terrace, a group of young people tried to stop us but we managed to get out. There was another smaller terrace with some people who had made it to safety. They wore white tops that reached to the waist and were of a light, vaguely transparent material, similar to a lady's blouse. Our house was not burned down."

The dream opens with a situation that is actually a diagnosis: "I was sleeping." At present, this is the spiritual status quo of the majority of mankind and of large sections of the church. "I was sleeping" refers to spiritual sleep. It symbolises spiritual slumber, apathy or disinterest for the things of God, ignorance, darkness (no knowledge of the things of God).

Such a state speaks of "hear nothing, see nothing." This is a type of spiritual malaria. This person has little or no (=zero) discernment of spiritual things and their implications and does not realise how late the hour is. In a comment on a related topic, a reader who had studied some of the materials I sent her emailed this: "I realise that we were all totally blind." That is a sober diagnosis.

But thank God, these guys woke up. And once the diagnosis is clear, steps can be taken and change can come.

Concluding from the events in the dream, the dreamer did wake up. In real life, this young lady became a believer after she had been non-committal about the Lord for a number of years. But one day, she sent an email: "I want to tell you that I am ready to commit. I want to enter the Kingdom of God. No more excuses." We prayed and she received the Lord. For some time now she has been instrumental in helping to send materials to Latin America.

Let us now take a closer look at this prophetic dream.

"I was sleeping in my bed in an apartment that belonged to my family, one of my brothers was with me. It was in a house that had several floors."

I have already mentioned the diagnosis of spiritual malaria. We encounter this diagnosis every day. In the natural world, spiritual understanding is as rare as a 10-karat diamond. You may notice that in a so-called regular conversation, the things of God and the prophetic significance of this season are rarely ever mentioned.

You can be well-dressed and stylish on the outside while the inner, spiritual man is a zombie. Some look cute and their body is in top shape, but spiritually they are crippled and actually limp (some even crawl) through the days and through their lives. Others are neither rich nor particularly stylish on the outside, but they are spiritual giants. It is only when you wake up from spiritual malaria that you can truly begin to understand who you are in Christ—if (big IF) you have accepted Him as your Lord.

We see an apartment that belongs to the dreamer's family. In the bible, houses and dwellings are often symbolic of life. The dreamer comes from a large extended family in South America with many siblings, uncles, aunts, cousins and so on. Here an entire clan is pictured by the "house." This speaks of the colourful fabric of life, of close relationships and meaningful connections. Family relationships and ties are very important to the Lord. This dream addresses the personal responsibility of each believer to be a blessing and a witness to his or her family and to all those who are close, whether it is friends, acquaintances, co-workers in the office or others.

The group of people with whom we are closely linked by various ties and occupations is our daily mission field. This is the God-given circle that we are called to influence through our lives, words and actions. To be able to do this, we must live by the WORD and be ready at all times. Maybe you have heard the popular saying: "Preach at all times. Use words only when necessary." Our actions often speak louder than our words. Someone remarked, "I cannot hear your words because your actions are speaking so loud!"

The responsibility to “preach” to family and loved ones through the way we conduct our lives is a theme that runs through this whole dream. Whoever is saved has the treasure of Jesus Christ in his (or her) heart. How much of that Treasure do we actually pass on to the people we love and to those we live with or work with every day? Is the sharing of the good news of the gospel more important than our ego and our comfort? Are we willing to share the Word even when we are tired, when we are hurting for some personal reason or when we under pressure and time constraints because of work or other deadlines?

Is it really important to us to get the gospel (= the good news which Jesus brought) out to family and friends, or are we content to parade a superficial spiritual façade while trying to avoid the “offence of the cross” which we know might expose us to mocking and ridicule? Let me share one thing that I learned early in my walk with Jesus: The people in your life may be mocking, scornful or even cruel and spread bad stories about you once they hear that you have made a commitment for Jesus. That has happened and will happen to every believer at some point.

You must also know that every word you say and everything they see you do will have a seed effect in their lives, even if they plug their ears and pretend not to listen. One day, these seeds will talk to them. They will come up in their heart.

Jesus told us to pray for those who persecute us. On some days, you may want to do anything but pray for your persecutors, but that does not make it less important. Keep in mind that each person must decide for himself where he (or she) will spend eternity. No one can decide for you and you cannot decide for others.

Will you choose Jesus or satan? This is an eternal choice and there is no third door. Those who are unwilling to hear will soon cry and whimper in pain and despair, especially when they realise that all true believers have been taken from the earth in the rapture while they have been left behind and must now face the worst time in human history, a time of hell on earth from which there is no escape. Many will not survive it. Jesus has warned us. It is your responsibility as a believer to receive the Word and pass it on to others in love. Whoever is not willing to listen to Jesus will face the consequences.

We Have a Mandate to Influence

The house where the dreamer’s apartment is located has several floors. This speaks of the fact that the dream addresses more than one family. Different floors or "levels" of life speak of the overall geographic area where this house (=these lives) is located. They speak of a country and its various social strata. This is telling us that one person can (and should) influence her own family and thus be a factor to even impact society far beyond this little group. "One believer with God is a majority," someone has said. One believer can influence a group and impact the fate of a whole nation.

Miriam for example, a teenage girl from Bethlehem, today is known as Mary, Jesus' (earthly) mother. She chose to say YES to the message of the angel who told her that she was going to give birth to the Messiah. With that YES Mary marched right into the pages of history for time and eternity (see Luke 1:26-45).

"One of my brothers was with me." This emphasizes the theme of the believer's responsibility to witness to family. Jesus wants each person to be reached with the gospel message so that they can make an informed choice.

If people do not know what kind of life is available in Jesus, how will they be able to make a choice? Ignorant people are limited to the facts of natural life in the Babylonian system, the mainstream system of the world. This is what we are born into and it is also the system that we need to get born out of, to be born again into the eternal life which Jesus provides (see John 3). The brother that is mentioned here and the rest of the dreamer's family have (to my knowledge) no idea what kind of life is available in Jesus and how to obtain it. They must urgently hear this message. The end of the age is upon us.

God Speaks to You in Dreams

"The entire front of the bedroom was glass, so I could see the sky from my bed."

Glass speaks of transparency and vision. Here, the image of a "glass front" in the bedroom has a spiritual application. It speaks of the fact that the natural world and the spiritual world occupy the same space. There is really no dividing line or barrier between the natural realm in which we live and the spiritual world. You can choose to "see through" in the spirit world like through a glass window. We can learn to see into the spiritual world from any position in the natural world just as the dreamer saw the sky (symbolising the Kingdom of heaven) as she was lying on her bed.

Notice that the dreamer woke up before she saw the sky. The bible says that we see the supernatural reality of God's Kingdom with the "eyes of the heart." That is why Jesus said, "The Kingdom of God is within you" (Luke 17:21). It takes spiritual eyes to see (discern, look into, understand) the spirit world. Natural man does not see the things of God, for they are spiritually discerned (1 Corinthians 2:14). Spiritual messages cannot be decoded with a natural mind or by intellectual analysis. To understand a spiritual message it takes spiritual vision.

Often, I have heard newcomers ask, “If this kingdom is already here, why can I not see it with my (natural) eyes?” The spiritual reality of God’s Kingdom can only be contacted when your spirit (=your inner man) is born again into the Kingdom. This happens when you choose to commit your life to the Lord and to receive Him into your life in prayer. (If you do not make that choice for the Lord, you will continue to live under the dominion of satan, which is the natural default position of man.)

When you make a choice for the Lord, you receive a new spirit and you become a new person on the inside, in an instant. This is a miraculous, supernatural event. You may not feel anything naturally when you pray, but the Word tells us that the transfer happens when you accept Jesus into your life, and we believe it and thus receive it.

In fact, you can receive the Lord right now. Pray this prayer (say it loud and mean it with your heart): Lord Jesus, I come to you as I am. I want to make a change in my life. Come into my heart, and live Your life in me and through me, Amen.

This prayer is based on Romans 10:9-10 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Once you have made this commitment, you are no longer a natural man. A supernatural “light” has been switched on inside of you. You may or may not notice this right away. Step by step, you can now begin to get acquainted with and see supernatural reality.

God has sovereignly chosen to broadcast on the frequency of His Word. In order to understand His plans and His ways as well as to decode His messages, you will need to study the Word. Once you begin to study, the Word—which is Spirit—will open to you the ways of the supernatural. This is an exciting life.

Over the years, I have watched people grow in the Word and in their understanding of the things of the Kingdom. I have seen how they begin to do great and marvellous things for the Lord once they understand what privileges they have been given and what their mandate is for the Lord in the earth in these last days.

However, if people are disinterested or vague about receiving the Lord and do not make a clear commitment for Him, they will have to remain on the natural level of man and thus stay blinded to spiritual reality as long as they maintain this attitude.

But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 2 Corinthians 4:3-4 KJV

In the natural world, a child grows and matures for about 20 years until he or she can be qualified to live life as an adult person. It works in a similar way with spiritual things. Some think that spiritual wisdom is like instant coffee. They read three chapters in the bible once in 6 months, pour a little enthusiasm and stir the mix, thinking that they are now a real spiritual giant. Maturing in the things of God takes time. To put up an expert façade and throw scripture around does not mean that a person has developed beyond the level of a spiritual baby that can (at best) say “dada-da.”

Wake Up and Begin to See

The glass front gives us a perspective of what is happening in the spirit world. It tells us that the spirit and the natural world do not exist separately. The reality of the Kingdom of heaven is always present, even to those who have not yet woken up to it. We can access God’s Kingdom any time, in any place and in any situation. It does not matter what we have done or not done in the past. The time to come to Jesus is always NOW.

The Word compares the human body to a house. In dreams, the rooms in a house can symbolise a specific area of life. Here, the dreamer is in the bedroom. Obviously, this is the place where we sleep.

Two aspects of sleep are addressed here. One is spiritual sleep, ie. ignorance or darkness, which I have already mentioned under the term spiritual malaria. This is a state of ignorance of the things of God. It can be changed by making a choice for the Lord and handing one’s life over to Him—and better today than tomorrow, for the hour is late.

The second aspect is the fact that we receive supernatural messages from the throne of heaven while we sleep. When man’s will and reasoning are switched off, his spirit man is awake and can receive God’s messages straight into the heart. The Word says that at night, when the mind of man rests and the seemingly endless babble of the day has come to a stop, God can speak messages of love and direction to man’s heart across the “glass front.”

Everyone has dreams. But some say, “I never have dreams.” Or, “I sometimes have dreams, but I don’t remember them.” If you declare (=speak with your mouth) that you do not dream, you have made a decree which is heard and acknowledged in the spirit world. This follows the law of the spoken word. Your heart hears these words and shuts off the receiver. Then, you will have what you say—you will not get dreams, or you will get them and be unable to understand them.

If you desire to reverse this, you must start to say: “Tonight I will receive dreams. I receive the dreams that God is sending to my heart. I will remember them well and write them down.” Then, place a pad and a pencil near your bed and write down whatever you have heard or seen in your dreams at night as soon as you wake up, even if it may not make any sense at first. You will be surprised how well God can direct you if you are only willing to listen and to learn. We have many such testimonies here.

A Voice Behind the Voice

“I was woken from sleep by my mp3-player, where all my audio teachings are stored.”

This young lady had audio teachings (on biblical topics) available for years, but she did not find time to listen to them. The audios only came alive when she decided to commit to the Lord. In the dream, this is symbolised by the fact that her mp3-player, where all her audio teachings are stored, woke her up.

God uses human instruments to accomplish a divine purpose. Behind the human voice that is speaking the Word of God, there is a heavenly voice that speaks. When the dreamer began to hear the voice behind the voice, her spirit man listened and things started to change. It was a miracle in motion. She did wake up from spiritual slumber and began to see the reality beyond the “glass front.”

Of course, this process of waking up and getting acquainted with the spiritual world is not always easy. Today, many have heard micro-waved sermons where the believer’s walk is presented as a picnic under blue skies with occasional puffy clouds that vanish quickly and never mess with their hair.

The apostle Paul called faith a fight. And it is a good fight, because it is a fight that you, too, can win. The life of faith is a proactive, overcoming life.

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

1 Timothy 6:12 KJV

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

2 Timothy 4:7 KJV

“Serve Him or Perish”

Here is an excerpt from a testimony of one who awoke from spiritual slumber and is now an active believer.

“The Word of God has shaken me awake. The Word is the only way to get people out. I am grateful to the Lord and to what He is doing through your life. It is a great privilege to have access to a place where supernatural things are explained well. Ever since I first made contact with you a lot of new things have come into my life, especially materials concerning the Word of God. The puzzle is beginning to form an image.

Every second that I have spent studying in the Word has paid off and will continue to pay great dividends. There were times when I tripped, but by His grace I got back on my feet.

Recently, satan whispered into my ear that I should get away from this platform and from all its materials, and then my life would be much better, the voice said. Leave the bible, don't study that much, this is too big for you...

You see, now I have been trained in the Word and so I knew how to respond. So I said, Wait a minute, devil. If my life is going to be so good without the Word, then why was it not going well before I studied the Word? Why was I being tormented by a thousand question marks and going through a life of failures and mistakes, and never found out why all this was happening?

I did not quit. I have endured all the corrections the Word has worked in me and I still do. I know what it is like to be without Jesus and I never want to live like that again. Even with some of the ups and downs that a beginner may face, my life is much better now than ever before. I am grateful that you stood with me and did not give up, lifting me up and encouraging me as the weeks went by.

Without His great mercy and love for me and without knowing that the Lord desires to accomplish great things through me, I would have drifted away and been lost for eternity. But I am with the Lord. I am right on track. I consistently feed on His Word and I am learning to listen to what He is speaking about His plans for my life. What a difference He has made in my life!

There is only one way: serve the Lord or perish. I have chosen life in Him. I will do my best to walk with the Lord not only for my own life, but also for the lives of all those He desires to reach through me while there is still time. This life with Jesus is the good life, an exciting life! If all the people who watch science fiction movies to get the thrill of the extraordinary studied the bible, they would constantly experience the most extraordinary life they can image, and more. I pray that the Lord will help me to continue to walk in His power and authority and to be a willing, obedient instrument.” (Excerpts quoted from original text)

This Thing Is Certain

“While I was still lying on my bed, I looked at the sky and watched as the stars formed two different patterns.”

Now the dreamer is looking "at the sky." This is equivalent to looking at the Word and what it has to say about endtime events. Jesus speaks through His Word. The bible is speaking book. From its pages, a voice speaks straight from heaven.

*Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
Deuteronomy 32:1 KJV*

*Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee.
Deuteronomy 4:36 KJV*

So many people stare at the constellations of the stars and run to soothsayers (ie. occultists) in order to “hear from heaven.” But they are not hearing from heaven. Actually, whoever consults with psychics or their publications in the media has contacted a representative of satan and his kingdom of darkness, ignorance and confusion. This is dangerous.

If you have been doing such things, wake up! Take the tomatoes off your eyes and wake up to real life. Then, as you are rubbing the sleep from your face you might realise, for the first time, that this “glass front” before you is actually a panoramic window that allows you to see into God’s plan for your life and into His reality, where your eternal destiny is waiting. The Word is always broadcasting, waiting that man on earth will switch on the “receiver” (=heart).

The fact that changing constellations of the stars are mentioned speaks of the end of the age, when heaven and earth shall be shaken. The Word teaches that ALL things will be shaken before the Lord returns to earth to set up His Kingdom.

*For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.
Haggai 2:6 KJV*

This theme is picked up in the New Testament:

See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: For our God is a consuming fire.
Hebrews 12:25-29 KJV

Notice that both heaven and earth shall be shaken. The shaking of the heavens is symbolised here by the changing patterns of the stars.

I will shake the heavens and the earth is an image of the shaking up and judgment of the situation in the spiritual world. This points to the nearing end of the age of grace, which will terminate with all true believers going up to heaven in a glorified body in the rapture, whereupon satan's final era in the earth will start. It will be the worst seven years in human history. This dream explicitly warns about the fact that this season is at hand.

The fact that the stars changed their pattern twice, ie. that the shaking of the heavenlies was shown twice, is a somewhat subtle, but important signal.

And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.
Genesis 41:32 KJV

When something is repeated twice, the bible tells us that the thing is established by God and it will shortly come to pass. This is both confirmation and an urgent message: God will do it, He has determined what will happen and it will happen. There is no moving of God's plans. And He will shortly bring it to pass—this will happen SOON.

Spiritual Fire Alarm

“Then I saw that below it was extremely bright. When I looked down, I realised that all houses were in flames.”

“When I looked... I realised...” Now the dreamer is awake. From the perspective of the Word, we are able to see the spiritual perspective of events, which this dream is seeking to communicate to those who will listen.

Urgent things are going on in the spirit world and therefore warnings are being sent out all over the world. Here we see a dangerous situation: houses (=lives) are burning. The fire is threatening to destroy them.

This is an image of the spiritual status quo in the lives of many people all over the world today. They have not yet woken up to spiritual reality (they are fast asleep). Sadly, they do not realise what danger they are in and what will shortly come upon the earth. With mere natural sight, the urgency of the situation cannot be recognised. It takes spiritual vision and understanding to realise what is going on.

To natural people, life appears to be looking pretty much the same as always these days. Most do not expect major changes in the years ahead. True, the global financial meltdown and the fact that entire nations are being threatened by corporate bankruptcy (eg. Greece, USA) have worried some. But despite all the evidence that major shaking is coming on this planet, people are making plans as if nothing is happening, presuming that all these systems that are currently in disarray will eventually—magically?—right themselves and then life will be business as usual.

They discard all information about endtime events which prophecy watchers have been talking about for years. This is a fatal error and it could cost many lives not just for time, but for eternity. This is why such prophetic warnings are sent with increasing frequency. Warning is sent out in love that millions of lives are threatened by “fire.”

This shows us what time it really is on God’s prophetic timetable. The message is: Guys, your houses are burning! Your lives are at risk, get to safe ground! (This does not necessarily mean that natural houses are burning, although this is could be an aspect.) This is a spiritual fire alarm. Lives are “burning” and urgent measures must be taken. Eternal life is at stake.

Let us take a brief look at what fire means in scripture. What do these flames have to do with an urgent warning and a spiritual timetable?

Fire and God’s Wrath (Anger)

Ezekiel speaks of the fire of God’s wrath: For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken (Ezekiel 38:19).

In the Book of Isaiah, we learn more about God’s wrath: Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. (Isaiah 13:13)

Zephania illustrates what the time of God's wrath will look like: That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness...Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD'S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land. (Zephania 1:15, 18)

Malachi speaks of a time of wrath that will burn like an oven: For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. (Malachi 4:1)

More graphic description on God's anger is given in the Book of Revelation, which is yet to be fulfilled. Revelation 6:16 mentions the wrath of the Lamb. In the next verse, we read: For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? (Revelation 6:17)

And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth. Revelation 11:18

The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. Revelation 14:10

And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. Revelation 14:19

And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God Revelation 15:1

And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever. Revelation 15:7

And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. Revelation 16:1

And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

Revelation 16:19

Revelation chapters 17 and 18 describe the fall of the financial and economic system of Babylon, of which we are seeing the first signs.

For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

Revelation 18:3

Finally, at the end of the Book of Revelation, we see a scene where Jesus will return to earth personally and make an end of all rebellious systems, another instance of wrath:

And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.
Revelation 19:15

We Have a Choice

There are only two positions in the spirit: you are either in Jesus or you are not. If you are in Jesus you are under God's grace. If you are not in Jesus, you are under God's wrath and you will come under His judgment.

Sadly, many people have a very limited understanding of God's standards of justice. This is called ignorance and it can be lethal. They say, "But a good God is only love and He would never be angry or judge anyone."

Scripture says otherwise. Yes, God is love. God is absolute goodness. But God is also the God of Justice and as such, He is the Supreme Judge of all the earth and He will judge.

Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.
Romans 11:22

Every man, woman and child on this earth is given a right to choose life and love (blessing) or destruction and death (curse). Our right to choose is guaranteed in the Word:

I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live...
Deuteronomy 30:19

For those who have chosen Him, the judgment is life. For those who have chosen not to accept Him, the judgment is death, and death includes wrath. This produces two basic groups of people—those that are His and those that are not. Scripture speaks of the distinction between these two groups and their destinies.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.
John 3:36 KJV

Those that refuse God's offer of Love and eternal life with Jesus are children of wrath or children of disobedience. They are rebels and will be judged, even if they rebel against God because of ignorance. In the courts of natural law, you cannot escape legal consequences and punishment by claiming that you did not know the rules. It is your duty to know the rules and to behave accordingly. How much more must this apply in the courts of law of the spiritual world!

Since these facts are published here, you now know and you have no excuse. It is your duty to know--or get to know--the rules of the constitution of heaven (the bible) and to make a choice. It is also your responsibility to pass this information urgently on to others.

God's Children Are Not Appointed to Wrath

All those who truly belong to Jesus will be kept safe from the coming wrath, like Noah in the ark. When all the rebels and mockers drowned in the waves, Noah's ark was lifted up higher. It will be the same in the rapture. God's children will not be on earth during the time of wrath. We will have been airlifted out of the danger zone by the "ark" of God's Word, which clearly tells us that Jesus is coming for His people and will take them out before His wrath can fall on rebellious humanity.

The fact that God's children are not appointed to wrath and are safe in Him at all times is expressed in the following scriptures:

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
Romans 5:9

And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

1 Thessalonians 1:10

For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

1 Thessalonians 5:9-11

Because you have kept my command to endure, I will also keep you safe from the time of trouble which is coming upon the world to test all the people on earth.

Revelation 3:10 GNB

In this last passage in Revelation 3, the word “from” is the Greek word “ek,” which means “out of.” We, the children of God, shall soon leave the earth and join our Lord for eternity. The Word gives us comfort by telling us here that we are safe from the wrath to come because Jesus will take us out.

Get Out of Here!

“I shouted to my brother, "Pack only what is necessary and let's get out of here!" My brother replied, "I have no idea what I need to pack in such a situation."”

The time of judgment is immediately before us. It is rolling forward like a huge wave that no man can stop. Even those who do not know the Word seem to sense that something ominous is coming on the people of the earth.

We have seen that God’s family of believers is not destined for wrath. Before the judgement of the wicked can begin, we will have been airlifted out of life on earth. Anyone who knows the Word must be (or get) in ready mode these days and prepare for the coming departure (rapture) and the end of life on earth as we know it, and the beginning of life in the eternal world. The Word commands: Be ye ready! That is, pack your bags. Get your affairs in order. The change from earthly to eternal life is no small thing.

The dreamer’s brother obviously does not know the Word. He has not given his life to Jesus, so he is not yet part of the Kingdom of God. This is why he has no idea “what to pack in such a situation” or how to get ready. This does not mean that he is a bad person. He is just ignorant.

So, how does one “pack what is necessary” for eternal life?

Note that this dialogue is taking place within the family, between a brother and sister. (The sister is saved). Like this unsaved family member, many people have no idea what is going to happen very soon, possibly within the next weeks and months. Who will tell them? Who will get materials and information to them?

“I said, “Put all the wallets and the ID documents in a bag.””

Here are specific instructions on the necessary things that need to be packed. The key words are: wallet and ID documents. “ID documents” relate to documents of identification such as passport, driver’s licence etc. These key words relate to value systems and identity. Jesus had much to say about riches, values and identity.

Let us look at the wallet first. Usually, a wallet contains money (paper money and coins), credit cards, charge cards, business cards and sometimes photos of loved ones.

Jesus said, For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. (Matthew 6:21 KJV)

The Weymouth New Testament reads: For where your wealth is, there also will your heart be. (Matthew 6:21 WNT)

Here, Jesus points out the connection between heart and wealth. What is important to your heart? Within a few verses in the same chapter, we read about His order of priority:

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. (Matthew 6:33 KJV)

The Kingdom of God is to be our first priority. We are commanded to seek first the Kingdom of God, and then all other things will fall into place.

In the natural world, people are trained to live against this command. Within the mainstream system of Babylon, the highest value is MONEY. To accumulate money is Babylon's top priority. The idea is: Make as much money as you can, then hoard it. Run the rat race and be the top rat if you have to, but make a lot of cash and keep it, and people will like you. This is Babylon’s message in a nutshell.

Jesus spoke about value systems from a Kingdom perspective. In His eternal Kingdom, treasure and heart are connected and relate to things of eternal value.

So now the question is: Where is your treasure? What has value in your life and how do you go after it? Is the Kingdom of God your top priority every moment of every day, or is it the pursuit of money? (If money is your top priority, money is your “god” and you need major mind renewal.) What is your highest aspiration, your heart's delight?

Babylon is the system of confusion. It is man’s attempt to get to heaven without God, which is impossible. The focus on material things and accomplishments that we are seeing so often in the systems of the natural world is evidence of that. Man has transferred trust from God, the Creator, to creation (i.e. money, things). This is called materialism and it will lead nowhere.

Are You in the Book of Life?

Next, ID documents need to be packed. Here, the issue is how to get one's spiritual ID (identity) ready for the return of the Lord.

This leads to the question: Where, actually, is spiritual identity to be found?

The terms identity and identical are derived from two Latin words, idem, the same, and facio, to make. Identity means to be the same as or the perfect agreement of two things or persons. When an officer checks your passport, he is checking to see if you are the same person which your ID document says you are.

In the system of Babylon, man is primarily identified with things. The more things (or titles, possessions, accomplishments) one has, the more important this person is presumed to be and the higher the ranking will be in Babylon's caste system.

From God's perspective, the identity of man cannot be found in things but only in Christ. A person is either in Him, i.e. in His Son Jesus Christ, or he/she belongs to satan. There is no third option.

Jesus has paid for our sin on the Cross so we can receive His life. Our identity rests in Him. If we are not in Him, we are going nowhere and we have neither life nor future. Life and identity are only found in Him.

*For in him we live, and move, and have our being.
Acts 17:28 KJV*

Prophetic dreams often use natural images to convey a spiritual message. When we travel from one place to another in the natural world, the passport is usually the first ID document that is asked for. It tells the official of the border who we are, what name, occupation, address and status in life we have.

Soon, millions of believers will leave earth and be relocated to heaven. We will need a special passport to get in. We will need the Blood-red passport, the identity which Jesus bought for us, to enter into eternal life with Him. Jesus is the only Way to heaven.

I am the way... (John 14:6)

In other words, Jesus is saying: I am your passport to eternal life. You will only be able to get in through Me. Those who have accepted Jesus as their King, Lord and Saviour have a Blood-red passport. They are in the Lamb's Book of life, heaven's record of registered citizens.

We...are citizens of heaven.
Philippians 3:20 GN

Rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.
Luke 10:20 KJV

And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.
Revelation 13:8 KJV

This scripture speaks of those who will worship the antichrist during the coming Tribulation. These will not be in the Lamb's (Jesus') book of life. Those who do not belong to Jesus will be judged at the Great White Throne. Here, whoever is not found in the book of life will be cast into the lake of fire for ever.

I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.
Revelation 20:12-13, 15 KJV

These are sobering facts. This dream is a wake-up call for those who are not yet registered in heaven and do currently not belong to the Lamb's book of life. We have moments left to change our ID from Babylon to Jesus and get the Blood-red passport to heaven.

What about you? Where is your ID? If the Lord returned today, would you be ready to enter heaven? Is your ID/your passport ready and stamped in His Blood? Is your family ready? Do they know about Jesus and the book of life?

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.
2 Corinthians 5:17

“I ran to get all the wallets and put them in a bag and dashed to the exit [the door]. On a terrace, a gang of youngsters tried to stop us, but we managed to get out.”

The urgency of getting ready is obviously understood. The dreamer runs, gets the essentials and makes it to the door with her brother.

The terrace can be seen to symbolise a zone in the spirit realm. Here, it is an intermediary zone where the new spiritual status is challenged by a gang of youngsters. This is a spiritual conflict. The gang is sent by satan to challenge or even stop spiritual progress, if possible.

There are many ways to do this. The enemy may try to block, hinder or delay spiritual progress by bringing doubt, conflict, exhaustion, bad dreams, circumstances that turn uncomfortable, accidents etc on the scene. I recall one guy who I prayed with for salvation. He accepted Jesus, got set free from occult involvement and started to study the Word. Shortly after that, he injured his leg in an accident. It took quite a while to heal as he wrote to me in an email from the rehab. Satan was so furious that he had lost his (occult) servant to the Kingdom of God that he tried to hit him one last time, even though the man was now saved and living for Jesus.

Often, nothing dramatic may happen on the outside while satan subtly attacks the convert's new commitment for Jesus by suggesting twisted thoughts, bringing up emotional wounds and other things from the past.

The good news here is that the dreamer and her brother made it to safety. They overcame satan's attacks. This is shown here to reassure us, for everyone can overcome such attacks and make it to safe ground, too. Hallelujah!

“On another terrace, there were a few people who had made it to safety.”

On another terrace, we see a group of people who “have made it to safety” and are wearing white tops. White garments in scripture speak of righteousness and light (wisdom, knowledge). These people here are saved (safe) because they have prayed and made a commitment for Jesus. The dreamer and her brother have woken up spiritually, realised how late the hour is and escaped from the fire in a last-minute rescue.

The one who has woken up is guiding her brother, who still may not fully realise what is going on in the spirit realm. His sister's testimony and understanding of the urgency of the situation and of what needs to be done (packed) have spoken a clear message. She is showing him the way to safety.

“They wore white tops that reached to the waist and were of a light, vaguely transparent material, similar to a lady’s blouse.”

In Revelation 19, we hear a triumphant shout in heaven, rejoicing over the marriage of the Lamb and the fact that His wife, the church (or bride), has made herself ready.

Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

Revelation 19:7-8 KJV

Note that the bride HAS MADE herself ready (not: IS MAKING herself ready). The MAKING READY has already happened, it is in the past. Verse 8 tells us how the bride has made herself ready: She has dressed (or covered) herself in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. (The Weymouth translation says: ...the fine linen being the righteous actions of God's people.)

In order to qualify to be part of the wedding of the Lamb of Revelation 19, the bride must be arrayed in the proper garment. This garment is made of fine linen, which is symbolic of righteousness (ie. right standing with God). The linen is clean and white, speaking of the righteous acts of the saints (God’s special people).

When we come to the Lord and receive Him as our Saviour and King, His righteousness is given to us. At that point, we are counted righteous with His righteousness. Scripture says that no one is good but God (Mark 10:18) and that we are saved by grace, not by our own good deeds or noble works (Ephesians 2:8-9). We receive His righteousness, as we have none of our own. His righteousness clothes us from above. This is a legal-spiritual transaction and it has legal consequences.

As wonderful as this may be, it is not enough. We have to proceed from imputed righteousness to outworked righteousness. This is why the passage in Revelation 19 speaks of the righteous ACTS of God’s people. Righteous acts speak of ACTION.

“That Thou Mayest Be Clothed”

We could think of every righteous deed that we do after salvation as a thread in our wedding garment. The question we need to ask ourselves is: Will we have enough material to be decently covered when the big day of Revelation 19 comes? Will we have enough linen (material) for a proper wedding gown or will it only be sufficient for a bikini?

This may sound a little comical, but Jesus addressed that very fact when He spoke not only to the historic church of Laodicea, but also prophetically to the church that will be in the earth right before His 2nd Coming, ie. the church of today:

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;
15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.
16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.
17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:
18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.
19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.
20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
Revelation 3:14-20 KJV

Jesus counsels His people (He is not speaking to the heathen here) to buy from Him white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear.

To buy from Him does not mean that money is involved. This is speaking of a spiritual transaction. We need to receive something from Him and we are emphatically counselled to do so. In verse 16, Jesus warned about the serious consequences of being lukewarm. Lukewarm people can blend in with any group, even if their hearts are as cold as a cucumber. They are not really passionate for Jesus and thus offend no one, neither in the complacent church nor with the people of the world.

Jesus warns that He will come and be a swift judge to the pretenders: I will spue thee out of my mouth (verse 16). Who wants to be vomited out by the Creator Himself?

Wearing Nothing But a White Top?

In this prophetic dream, the people “wore white tops that reached to the waist and were of a light, vaguely transparent material, similar to a lady’s blouse.”

Try to imagine, for a brief moment, people who are wearing semi-transparent white tops or blouses that reach down to their waist, and nothing else. This is a spiritual condition that Jesus warned about in verse 18: ... that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear.

There are several aspects to this. One is Jesus' warning about being covered properly, which we have already seen. In the natural world, could anyone attend a wedding dressed with nothing but a white top? If a garment reaches to the waist, essential parts of the body may not or only sparsely be covered. This would be a highly embarrassing situation. No one could join a wedding dressed like that and would probably even be legally prosecuted for indecent exposure.

How much more will decent covering be required in the royal atmosphere of heaven, where infinitely higher standards apply?

Second, the image of insufficient covering addresses the spiritual status quo. The dreamer states that several people have made it to safety. But have they really? The Word says otherwise. It calls such people lukewarm (pretenders) and counsels them to get their spiritual garments in order to anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. In other words, people are advised to take a sober look at their own spiritual condition, to get into the anointed Word of God and realise (or see) what their true spiritual condition is.

Thirdly, with these garments reaching only to the waist, a person's reproductive organs could be exposed or at risk of being exposed. Also, legs and feet are uncovered. From these facts we can conclude the following:

a.) These people's sexual and reproductive lives are not fully surrendered to the Lord. They may be preaching water and even put up a holy façade but they actually "drink wine" when no one is watching. They are "sexual atheists."

b.) Their walk in life (legs, feet) is not under the "cover" (direction, guidance) of the Word but rather controlled by their own ideas, plans and natural desires. Apparently, they do not seek or consult the Word. They do what they like, when they like it and how they like it. Jesus is not their Lord and they are not fully submitted to Him.

If you combine conclusions a.) and b.) you get a diagnosis of what is going on in many lives all over the world. While the image of a "religious Jesus" is held up and people may theoretically agree with Him and even have some form of religious tradition to appear respectable, the real Jesus remains unknown and His Word is not kept.

In practical reality, the Word of God has no place in their lives. Such people sleep with their girlfriend or boyfriend and live with their "lover" without realising that this behaviour is totally contrary to God's Word and carries a very serious penalty.

Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither FORNICATORS, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 KJV (author's emphasis)

These people will NOT inherit the Kingdom of God and they will NOT be part of the marriage of the Lamb.

Do you see the clear warning in this dream? If you are the one in the family who knows the truth (the Word), it is your responsibility to talk to your family and loved ones about it or else they risk spending eternity in hell and you may even have helped them to get there.

Your Endtime Assignment

We have seen that in order to have our spiritual garments ready, we must do certain righteous acts. God has appointed righteous acts individually for each one of us. He has mandated specific tasks and assignments that we need to DO. This is not a theoretical, but a practical plan. It calls for ACTION, not just mental assent. To learn more about God's plan, we need to ask for guidance in prayer and then listen to His voice directing us.

Time is running out. We have no more time to play church and schedule our righteous acts for later. Later may never come. Jesus said: Repent. This is a warning, sent in love, to turn around and completely change your ways, if you haven't already done so. Get into the Word and find out what God has said, then do it before it is too late.

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. Matthew 24:14 KJV

One important way to do righteous acts is to play a part in sending the gospel out in these last moments of the age. This is a collective mandate that concerns every believer.

No one who belongs to the Lord is exempted from this task. Not one. You may not be able to go out and preach the gospel yourself, be a missionary or an evangelist, or write books and articles, but that does not change the charge.

The Word clearly says that everyone is responsible to play a part in getting the gospel out. One way to do this is to help those people and platforms where the gospel is being preached and published and sent out. When the gospel of the Kingdom is preached all over the world as a witness to the nations, Jesus can come.

The gospel will be proclaimed and in fact is being proclaimed in many parts of the world. However, there are still many unreached territories and people groups. Entire countries sit in darkness. The lives of millions of people are hanging in the balance this very moment. Who will tell them? Who will write articles and preach and get materials into their hands?

You must decide how you will be involved in preaching the gospel of the Kingdom to all the nations and what your contribution will be. It takes commitment, energy, planning, encouragement, finance and skills to put God's Word into formats that people today can understand. It also requires logistics, initiative, cooperation and much more to distribute the materials once they have been produced. Everyone needs to be involved, one way or another.

What will your wedding garment look like? What is it looking like now? Do you have enough "threads" (righteous acts) to knit a bikini, or is your wedding garment reaching to the waist? Will it be big enough to cover your entire body?

How Then Shall We Live?

We are living in the last moments of the age of grace. It is our responsibility to get ready for the coming of the Lord and, as we are preparing, pass His wonderful grace on to others as quickly as we can.

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Titus 2:11-13 KJV

In this scripture we are mandated to

- a. live soberly (not distracted by the world)
- b. righteously (performing righteous acts, as we have seen) and
- c. godly (according to God's Word and plan) and in this attitude we should be looking for and expecting our blessed hope, the Coming of our Lord. Then we will be a church that is ready for Jesus when He comes, a bride that has her garments in order and is regally arrayed.

"Our house was not burned down."

As we have seen, a house can symbolise a life, a family or extended family or system of life. The good news is that this family can be spared and so can yours. There is still a little time left to come to the Lord, get to know the Word and take shelter in His Blood.

The statement that “our house was not burned down” does not necessarily mean that this is an accomplished fact. Salvation is not automatic. Even though salvation has been freely provided for everyone, a person must still choose to receive it. This requires action. If the appropriate adjustments are made, salvation of family and loved ones is possible.

The dreamer’s family is offered salvation and all they need to do is accept it and get with the program. The dreamer’s brother is symbolic of the rest of the family and extended family. Through this dream, the offer of salvation and the urgent invitation to partake of it is emphasised and extended to every person who reads or hears this.

The urgent message: Accept Jesus, get into His safety zone so that you, too, can be spared the judgment that is coming on the whole world and be rescued from the flames.

This dream, as all the other dreams in this series, is not just for the dreamer. I have published the dream and the main points of interpretation because its urgent message speaks to many lives all over the world. Everyone should listen before it is too late and their “house” (life) is threatened by the flames of judgment. Pass this dream on, we may not have much time left.

The Lord is coming SOON.

Endtime Dreams

What God is speaking to His people and to all who will listen

This E-BOOK presents a selection of interesting prophetic dreams sent from heaven to people all over the world to encourage, help and warn us in these last moments of the age.

Everyone can have meaningful dreams and hear from God. The narratives, symbols and patterns of these dreams are explained based on Scripture. The better you know the Word, the clearer and faster you will understand God's message. Every single one of these prophetic endtime dreams holds important lessons and brings guidance as well as supernatural instruction from the Word to all of us for such a time as this.

I sleep, but my heart is awake. Songs 5:2 MKJV

Dream #9—“I Was Standing in the Lake of Fire”

The woman who received the previous dream entitled “You Shall Know Them by Their Fruits,” had this graphic dream about the lake of fire. Here, the dreamer is seen standing in the lake of fire, surrounded by massive leaping flames.

This dream is an urgent warning sent by the Lord in love to men on earth so they will listen and turn to Him before it is too late and the age closes, which could happen at any moment.

It is appropriate that this dramatic dream is the ninth dream in this series. Nine is the number of harvest, finality and judgment. The lake of fire is the judgment and final destination for all rebels.

Nine is the end and conclusion of a matter. In Revelation 1, Jesus says that He is the Alpha and the Omega, which refers to the first and last letter of the Greek alphabet. Jesus has the last word and final say in everything. Several verses later, we read that He has the “keys of hell and of death” (Revelation 1:18), which takes us right into the subject.

I have known the dreamer for several years. One day, the Lord told her in prayer that the time had come to share her dream (with me) and, as we shall see, this clearly is perfect timing, for the hour is late. Here is her email:

“In a dream, I was shown the lake of fire. I was standing on a rock and looked around me in the four directions--north, east, south and west. Everywhere, I saw bursts of flames that were several metres high, a real lake of fire. Nothing else. As I woke up I was wide awake and wondered what the lake and the fire were all about. I asked the Lord to show me. At the time, I was still a newcomer to the things of God and had no idea that there even was such a thing as a lake of fire in the bible. A week later the Lord led me to a scripture in a friend's bible.

In my bible version, the scripture only spoke about some kind of pond. I did not relate that to the lake of fire which I had seen in the dream since it did not mention fire. Finally, I found the term “lake of fire” in two other bible versions. That is when I realised I had actually been dreaming about that scripture.”

Usually, a dream is best understood by reducing it to its basic keys, which deliver the essence of the message. The two main symbols are the rock that the dreamer is standing on, and the lake of fire with its dramatic flames.

1. The Rock

The dreamer is “standing on a rock.” Actually, she is standing on The Rock. The Rock is an image of God Himself. She is standing on the rock-solid truth of His authority and His Word. The dreamer is shown spiritual reality from the perspective of (=standing on) the truth of God’s Word.

*He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.
Deuteronomy 32:4 KJV*

In the above scripture, the symbolic telegram reads: Rock...perfect...God...truth.

*The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.
Psalm 18:2 KJV*

*My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him. He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.
Psalm 62:5-6 KJV*

*...and my God is the rock of my refuge.
Psalm 94:22 MKJV*

These scriptures speak of the truth that God is the unchanging, eternal reality of safety and protection. He is our salvation, there is no other. Whoever belongs to Him is safe. This is not just theoretical but practical reality and it is as solid as a rock.

The Almighty Is Not Santa Claus

Among many people in the world today, God is seen as some kind of cosmic Santa Claus who brings gifts to the people on earth in a season called Christmas but is otherwise detached and unattainable as He dwells in a remote place somewhere above the clouds.

It is true that ...every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights (James 1:17). God is the majestic and almighty King of the universe, but He has nothing to do with a cartoon figure like Santa Claus.

*For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us.
Isaiah 33:22 KJV*

The Rock is our Judge, our lawgiver and our king. When man accepts these truths in faith, he can be saved. As long as God is seen as Santa Claus and not as the Supreme Judge, as a cartoon figure clad in red velvet shouting ho-ho-ho and having no real authority other than to command the reindeer, man cannot see the need for salvation. If there are no absolute rules and no absolute justice, what would one need to be saved from?

I used to think along these lines before I came to know the Lord. From childhood on, I had been trained in Babylon's wrong ways and thinking. For many years, I simply did not know any better. Then I met people who were believers and for the first time I heard about salvation. It seemed that this was their favourite subject and they wanted to talk about nothing else. I wondered why salvation was so important. Why would I need to get saved? What for? Why was this necessary?

It was only when I began to hear the Word of God--not religious tradition, watered down by men's opinions, but the uncompromised Word of God--that I realised what condition natural man is in. Man is totally lost without a Saviour. Whether it is good works, stunning looks, great professional achievements or money in the bank—man's works can never be good enough. Note that the things I mentioned are not inherently bad or wrong, but they cannot qualify man to get to heaven. Only Jesus can qualify man get to heaven.

Heaven is the property of Jesus Christ. Admission is by appointment only--that is, by salvation. Without salvation, I realised, I was on the road to hell.

Natural man lives in spiritual darkness. His spiritual antennae are switched off. He needs the light of the Word to find the right road, that narrow road hewn in the Rock which leads to eternal life (Matthew 7:13-14). Without the Word of God, I would not have been able to see my condition for what it was—an ignorant walk along Babylon's broad-way of lies, deception and spiritual blindness, en route to the final destination of destruction and the lake of fire.

2. The Lake of Fire

“I looked around in the four directions--north, east, south and west. Everywhere, I saw bursts of flames that were several metres high, a real lake of fire.”

Now we come to the second key, the lake of fire. This is the final destination of all those who do not repent, i.e. change their mind and turn around to live a changed life for the Lord but instead continue to rebel against His Word and to live in disobedience. They need to turn around, which means to turn away completely from the ways of the system of Babylon.

The issue is complete separation unto the Lord. Partial separation from Babylon is actually compromise and the Lord will not accept it. This is why He sent a very clear warning of the consequences in the previous dream #8 entitled “You Shall Know Them by Their Fruits,” where the same woman was shown corrupted fruit.

No one in his right mind wants to come before the Judge of the universe with a basket full of corrupted fruit, which speaks of a corrupted life. Such a life will not lead to heaven unless, of course, the dreamer and all those who read this make the choice to completely turn away from compromise and thus save their lives for eternity.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

John 3:36 KJV

With regard to eternal life, man is either under God's grace or under God's wrath. There is no third option. The believer is under grace and has been granted the gift of eternal life. The unbeliever is under God's wrath and judgment. He shall not see life.

God is real. His Word is real. The Word is His law and by His Word every person on this earth shall be judged.

Eternal Judgment

Eternal judgment is real. It is, however, not a popular subject today. Many people prefer caramelised sermons about money, career, feeling good about themselves, and so on. But eternal judgment concerns everyone.

As we have seen, those who have given their life to Jesus and have lived by His Word are not under wrath and will go to heaven. Jesus is the door to heaven. Without Him, no one can get in.

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. (John 14:6 KJV)

There are only two options as to where man will spend eternity—heaven or the lake of fire. There is no third door and no other option.

The door to heaven (Jesus) must be chosen. It will not slide open automatically. I was brought up to think that heaven would just kind of happen to open like a sliding door when I die. But as I began to study the Word, I realised that such ideas come from religious traditions fabricated by men, and not from the authoritative Word of God. What man has added to the Word of God is useless and actually very dangerous.

People have said to me: “But So-And-So has said that. He is an expert in this matter.” So what? The real question is: What does the Word of God say about the matter? Men’s opinions and fabrications will not get anyone to heaven but lead people into error and confusion, which is actually happening on a very large scale today.

The consequences of this are eternal and this dream is a warning. Heaven cannot be entered through an automatic sliding door but only by the Blood of Jesus.

In my own life, I realised at one point that I had to make an active choice for Jesus if I wanted to be sure to go to heaven after I die and spend eternity with Him. If no active choice for Jesus is made, hell is chosen by default. It is up to every single man, woman and child on this earth to choose where they go when they die.

The choice must be made while the person lives in a body. Once the soul separates from the body and enters the eternal world, no more choices can be made. Then it will be too late to choose. So you better choose Jesus today if you haven’t already done so. Tomorrow might be too late.

If no choice is made, satan has a legal right to claim that soul upon physical death, which means that this soul will be imprisoned for eternity with him in hell. So, make the right choice while you still have breath. Choose life, choose Jesus!! Choose today!

Those who do not believe and refuse to receive Jesus as their Lord as well as the pardon He bought at the Cross are headed for judgment and thus the lake of fire.

What About Reincarnation?

One reader sent the question if there is such a thing called reincarnation in the bible.

As it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.
Hebrews 9:27 KJV

Reincarnation is a lie from the pit of hell. It is designed to make people think that they can still make the right choice AFTER their soul has left the body in the first death. People who follow such doctrines will not be reincarnated but will realise that they bought a lie when it is too late and they find themselves in the lake of fire. Unless, of course, they turn around and start to accept and study bible truth.

What would be the point of judgment if there were no laws and no one to enforce them? Many people live as if there is no tomorrow, no judgment and no consequences to their actions. But God is a Person. He IS the law. His Word tells us what awaits us after death and He has the authority to enforce what He says. This is serious business.

The First Death—Body and Soul Separate (Physical Death)

The first death is physical death, i.e. the separation of the physical body and the eternal soul. At that point those who are with Jesus leave their body and their soul immediately enters the presence of the Lord (2 Corinthians 5:8). This soul can never die again and will spend eternity with Jesus.

Every soul that does not belong to Jesus will immediately enter into the presence of satan upon physical death. Thereafter the soul is kept in the realm of the dead until judgment at the Great White Throne (Revelation 20:11). After the first death, when the soul has stepped over into the eternal realm, there is no turning back and no second chance to make a choice.

A decision for or against Jesus can only be made while the soul lives in a physical body. Once the soul leaves the body it is too late and the eternal destiny of this soul is settled forever.

So, if you haven't given your life to Jesus yet, choose today. You do not know what will happen in the next few hours. If you die unexpectedly, through an accident, a sudden illness or a crime, you might suddenly find yourself on the other side of life without a body. Then, it will be too late and you won't get another chance to make a choice.

After the first death, the separation of soul and body, there is no second chance ever again to make any choice whatsoever. This is dramatic. So, don't take chances. A soul without Jesus belongs to satan. Satan has a legal right to it and its eternal destiny is to join him in the lake of fire.

The Second Death

Did you know that Jesus has abolished death and that the judgment of the second death can be avoided for every person on this planet?

...our Savior, Christ Jesus. He has ended the power of death and through the gospel has revealed immortal life.

2 Timothy 1:10 KJV

The second death is the judgment of the disobedient, the unbelievers and the rebels, whether they knowingly rebelled against God or by ignorance (by not choosing Him actively while they lived in a physical body on earth).

Those who ignore Jesus or rebel against Him are on spiritual death row. Unless they turn around, they will only realise what the eternal consequences are when it is too late. This is why the scripture speaks of gnashing of teeth as people realise that they have been shut out of the Kingdom of heaven forever and that they can't get another chance to make right.

There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.
Luke 13:28 KJV

All unbelievers and rebels will be resurrected to appear before the Great White Throne, which is the final judgment of the unbelievers of all ages.

And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.
Revelation 20:11-15 KJV

The Lamb's Book of Life

Unbelievers of all ages must appear before the Great White Throne for judgment, whether they want to or not and whether they currently think that this is going to be so or not. Before the throne of God, man's opinions are irrelevant. What God says, counts—not what man says.

Rebels and unbelievers are NOT in the Book of Life. Therefore, they cannot enter heaven. There is no second chance. At the Great White Throne, only verdicts are handed out. The verdicts are eternal.

There are only two groups of people--those who belong to Jesus and those who don't. Those who belong to Jesus are written in the Lamb's Book of Life. Luke 10:20 says to

.. rejoice because your names are written in heaven.

These are the people ...whose names are in the book of life (Philippians 4:3).

He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

Revelation 3:5 KJV

Is your name written in heaven? Are you in the Lamb's Book of Life? Do you belong to Jesus?

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Revelation 20:15 KJV

Those who do not belong to Jesus are NOT written in the Book of Life. Their destiny is in the lake of fire, where they will spend eternity. These souls will never again have things such as cool water, fresh air, a breeze, wind, rain, trees—nothing, except for fire and torment without end.

A Millionaire's Last Mistake

Weather extremes in these endtimes can get rough. In July 2013, I read that a temperature record of 56 degrees Celsius was measured in Death Valley, USA. As the name implies, this is a place of death where nothing lives and nothing grows.

News media carried reports of people who died (physically) because they had no air condition available during the extreme heat and succumbed to the situation. Their system was not able to sustain such extremes.

Imagine for a brief moment that all rebellious souls will have an eternal body and be forced to live in a much more extreme environment not just for a week or two, but forever! After a million years, the inmates will howl and scream for someone to get them a glass of water or to get them out, even if just for a moment, but that won't be possible. This, alas, will be the destiny for millions of people who are unwilling to listen and make a change and come to the Lord NOW, before it is too late.

There will be many in the lake of fire who thought, "Tomorrow I will perhaps pray and give my life to the Lord, or next week or next year." But then something unexpected happened and they died (and thus left their physical body) without having made a choice for Jesus. When they crossed over and found themselves in the eternal world, they realised it was too late to choose anything.

The True Story of How a Millionaire Missed Heaven

This is the true story of a brilliant businessman who missed his eternal destiny in heaven, although he received several invitations to choose life. This guy was a business acquaintance of mine, a very brilliant and professional man and a highly respected authority in his field. He was a self-made multimillionaire. I had been working with him for some time on a certain assignment and was quite impressed by his expertise. In fact, I enjoyed listening whenever he explained (or tried to explain) complicated things to me.

However, the joy was not always mutual. Whenever he saw me arrive at one of our meetings with my bible sticking out of one of my bags, or a worship CD or some other material that was obviously in praise of the Lord, he pulled a sour face that said (in my simple translation): NO INTEREST FOR JESUS AND HIS MATERIALS!! GET AWAY FROM ME WITH THIS STUFF!!

One day, several months after our work assignment had been finished, I was watching the evening news. To my horror, the news reported that a certain businessman had been kidnapped. They mentioned his name and showed his picture on prime time news.

For several weeks, his photo was everywhere in the local media. Police and family were frantically looking for him. Urgent appeals were made if someone had seen him in recent days or knew his whereabouts. Shortly after that, his remains were discovered in a solitary place not far from his holiday home. It turned out that he had been murdered weeks before. His body was already decaying.

This was the first death (physical death). The man had not given his life to Jesus. He declined every invitation to come to Jesus and wanted nothing to do with Him, and his request was granted. His refusal to listen to Jesus was this man's last mistake and it cost him his life, for ever.

With physical death, he lost all the things that seemed so important to him—his luxury cars, tailored suits, the millions in the bank. Now, these things won't matter any more, not his money, professional reputation or his lavish holiday home. It is all gone. He could take nothing with him into eternity.

Now this once brilliant business man is a convict locked up in satan's dungeon and awaiting judgment at the Great White Throne, whereupon he will be thrown into the lake of fire and stay there for ever.

Friends, we meet people every day who are headed for the same destination unless they know what happens after the first death and can make a choice for Jesus while there is still time. People need to have materials so they can make an informed choice.

As far as the man in my story is concerned, I could not talk to him about Jesus or pass any materials on to him because he completely refused to hear or have anything to do with Jesus. But he got a chance to hear. The invitation was extended, but he refused.

We need to remember stories like this one as we go through our days and lives. They must get the Word and know what it says about their eternal destination. It is their choice whether they receive this or not.

Coming Tribulation, Mark of the Beast

We are fast approaching the rapture of the true church, where the Lord will take His people to heaven in a one-of-a-kind supernatural event. It could happen at any moment. All prophetic signs that must happen before the Rapture have been fulfilled. It has never been more urgent to commit one's life to the Lord.

After the rapture, seven years of Tribulation will begin. This will be the worst season in the history of mankind. According to the bible, conditions on earth will be so terrible during this time that two thirds of humanity will die. It will be a horrible time. You will not want to be here.

But if you have missed the rapture for some reason and are still on earth during that time, there are some things you must know in order to be able to save your soul.

At some point during the Tribulation, the global antichrist regime will require a mark that everyone must take in order to be able to have a job, hold a bank account and do business. This is called the "mark of the beast." The beast refers to the antichrist system, which will launch into full swing after the rapture.

And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Revelation 13:16-17 KJV

The bible speaks of the eternal judgment for those who take the mark of the beast. After this mark is accepted (whichever form it will take), there is no turning around and no second chance. Whoever takes this mark is damned and doomed to be cast into the lake of fire.

And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Revelation 14:9-11 KJV

“He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone”—this speaks of the lake of fire. It speaks of those who take the mark of the beast. They are damned forever.

If you are still on earth because you have missed the rapture or you plan to stay here and see what happens, know this: You can refuse to take the mark of the beast, but this will mean that you cannot buy or sell, hold a job or a bank account. You will likely lose your house or flat and have no food to eat and be forced to live as an outcast. You might starve to death or be shot, killed or tortured to death if you refuse to take the mark of the beast.

The good news is that if you refuse to take the mark and give your life to Jesus, you will likely die physically, probably by a horrible death, but you will save your eternal soul. The bible speaks of those who ...die in the Lord (Revelation 14:13) and the fact that they are blessed with eternal life. Whoever refuses to take the mark can still be saved eternally.

The choice is yours. Choose today, if you have not made a choice yet, whom you will serve--Jesus or satan.

This dream was sent as a very, very, very urgent last warning. Often, I wonder how many times the Lord has to send a message until people get it. If you do not turn around now or recommit your life to Jesus (in case of backsliding, lukewarm living etc.), it may soon be too late and you will have to pay a horrible price to save your eternal soul. The lake of fire is a reality, and so is the reality that you can still choose heaven.

Choose life today, choose Jesus! Your eternal security in Him is just a prayer away. Don't wait another day!

Send this link and/or pdf to everyone you know so they, too, can be warned. We have only seconds left until the Lord returns. It is up to every reader to decide what they will do with this information.

We must have a passion to tell other people about Jesus. Jeremiah could not hold back because the Word was like a fire in his heart. Even though he was mocked and ridiculed, he was undeterred and faithfully spread God's message of salvation. This is the right kind of fire!
